AN OUTDOOR EXPERIENCE

Beauty is an emotion that surpasses wonder. It is a state of mind, a feeling of admiration and awe.

It gives us pleasure. Beauty is experienced in a timeless dimension, immersed in a space where the boundaries between the self and the other become indistinguishable.

Beauty exists outside of us but lives within us, inside-outside, this is the key: the beauty that surrounds us is always reflected in our mood.

Dolcefar niente has created the Mirabile Collection so you can experience the sense of the balance that only the harmony of the external space can help us find.

We all thirst for beauty, we want to feel close to it, in an intertwining of pleasure and awareness. Touching a fabric, caressing a shape, feeling a pleasurable texture between our fingers are inescapable temptations: the Mirabile Collection was created to seduce. Made of hand-woven synthetic rattan, it offers all the advantages of artificial fibre with style: strength, durability, and easy maintenance. It fits surprisingly well in a wide range of settings. Beauty is a world that opens up a world to us.

Dolcefarniente expresses the beauty in the harmony of shapes and the symmetry of the elements that make up the space. The items of furniture in the Mirabile Collection are beautiful because they convey order, while they enchant and seduce because the proportions are flawless and the materials are refined. Perfect for creating atmospheres that reflect the most sophisticated taste and style. An unusual starting point for arriving at the truth of living well.

The Mirabile Collection redefines modern luxury on a global level, enhancing shapes, materials, textures, and light. All the elements in the collection interact with each other and can be combined to create an enchanting, customized outdoor scene in any setting. Dolcefar niente's sophisticated aesthetics and the Mirabile Collection's seductive authenticity transform the sense of space from a concept of elegant comfort to a way of being, outside time and within our rediscovered balance.

Our tale of beauty, of chasing the things we love, translates into exemplary furniture. Those influences intersect with design in unexpected ways through details, shapes, and colours. The Mirabile Collection thus transforms your space into an environment full of intimate love for life, of elegant balance that reconciles us with ourselves, without ever failing to surprise us. Beauty is awe.
